BIOGRAPHY

Many dreams came true when soul singer VLADA recorded his debut album All About You with some of his biggest heroes, such as ten-time Grammy Award winning TAKE 6 as well as world-class musicians Abraham Laboriel, Paul Jackson Jr., Vinnie Colaiuta, and Kirk Whalum. But let's go back a few decades: Raised in Switzerland to a Serbian family, VLADA was fascinated with all things groove from an early age. Soulful black sounds from the likes of Stevie Wonder, James Brown, Aretha Franklin, and Prince made him move inside and out. They made him sing, too, and so VLADA got seriously involved with the contemporary gospel music scene. He started writing his own songs as well, which by God's grace led to the aforementioned and critically acclaimed debut album All About You in 2010, a powerful and unique blend of soul, funk, gospel and pop featuring an all-star cast that surpassed VLADA's wildest dreams and that got him radio airplay and TV appearances in the USA and in Europe.

After living in New York City and Nashville for five years and giving over 100 concerts in the US and Canada, VLADA moved back to Switzerland to pursue the love of his life. Regarding his comeback albums LOVE (July 2021) and LIFE (April 2022), VLADA says, "I had intended to record and release these songs for many, many years! But life got in the way, I got married, had three kids and put my music career on the back burner. It's nothing short of a miracle that I could record 16 songs last summer with an international dream band which also features my friends from NYC, the Chops Horns (Alicia Keys, The Police, The Rolling Stones), sax maestro Mark Douthit (Lionel Richie, Whitney Houston, Michael McDonald) and the Odyssey String Orchestra (South Africa). My prayer is that these songs, which cover the highs and lows of life, may give people encouragement, new hope and joy and that they make them sing and dance – especially in these difficult times!"
